

TELERINGS – PRIVACY POLICY AND TERMS OF SERVICE

Privacy Policy

Telerings values your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. We collect only the data necessary to provide our BPO and VoIP services, such as names, contact details, call records, and service usage. All data is handled in accordance with international privacy standards, including GDPR and relevant telecom regulations.

Your data is never sold or shared without consent, except where required by law. We use strict security measures to protect your information from unauthorized access or misuse. Cookies may be used to enhance user experience; users may adjust their browser settings to manage cookie preferences.

By using our services, you consent to this policy and our data handling practices.

Terms of Service

By using Telerings' services, you agree to our terms. Our services must only be used for lawful purposes. You may not use our systems for illegal content, fraud, spamming, or unauthorized access attempts. Accurate and up-to-date information must be provided during signup or service engagement.

You are responsible for safeguarding your account credentials and are liable for any activity conducted under your account. Telerings reserves the right to suspend or terminate access in case of policy violations or misuse.

We may update, modify, or discontinue services at any time. While we aim to provide uninterrupted service, we are not liable for delays or outages caused by external factors.

All intellectual property—logos, content, and service frameworks—remain the property of Telerings or its partners. Unauthorized copying or use is prohibited.

By continuing to use our services, you acknowledge and accept these terms. Violations may result in service termination and possible legal action.
